information for the Hyatt

Parking – the tournament has arranged for special parking rates at the Hyatt Regency Washington of $15/overnight, $8 daily. All vehicles, including vans can also be accommodated in the large Union Station parking lot, two blocks east of the Hyatt.

Photocopying – the Hyatt has a business office with photocopy machines. There are nearby Kinko’s at 325 7th Street NW or 715 D Street SE.

Thursday and Friday overnight Evidence Storage – to help minimize elevator traffic on Friday morning, you may store your tubs in the Regency Ballroom on Thursday night, and room Congressional A on Friday night.

Friday Tournament Announcements – will take place in Room Columbia AB, Ballroom Level.

Ballot Tables – Ballots will be distributed directly to the competition rooms. Ballot collection for the Hyatt will be outside of the Conference Theater on the Lobby Level. Ballot collection for the AMA building will be on the second floor by the elevators. Look for CUA ballot runners in red shirts.

Lunch on Friday – There are three good options for the lunch break between rounds 2 and 3:

1) The Sun Spot Café, serves breakfast and lunch. It is located just behind the Hyatt on First Street in the same building as the AMA. Seats 65 inside, 60 outside weather permitting. Serves American, European, and Middle Eastern menu. Salad bar with more than 60 items, including substantial salads. Fast, walk through service. You can also order to go. 10% discount for debate tournament – show this program. Good choice for Thursday and Monday, too.

2) Perks, in the hotel lobby, has sandwiches and pizza. You can order Perks food ahead of time to be delivered throughout the hotel. They offer a discount on pizza for tournament participants; also you should have received a coupon for $7.95 sandwich, chips and drink.

3) The Union Station has a massive (and excellent) international food court. It’s a 5-minute walk from the Hyatt. Take NJ to 6th Street, and turn right. Union Station is the big white building two blocks ahead of you. The food court is in the basement level.

Competition Room Locations for Friday and Monday at the Hyatt and the AMA

On the Hyatt Ballroom Level, down the escalators from the lobby: Columbia A, B, C; Columbia Foyer; Concord; Lexington; Regency Foyer; Ticonderoga; Valley Forge; Yorktown.

On the Hyatt Lobby Level: (near escalators) Conference Theater; and (behind the bar area) Congressional A, B, C, D, E.

On the Hyatt Second Floor (access from separate elevators): Bryce, Everglades, Glacier, Grand Canyon, Grand Teton, Olympic, Redwood, Sequoia, Yellowstone, Yosemite.

Hyatt Executive Suites, Regency Suites and converted sleeping rooms will be indicated by their room numbers.

9 debates will be held in the American Management Association building, which is immediately behind the Hyatt. Directions to AMA Rooms: (1) going outside – out the front door of the hotel, turn right, turn right again at 5th Street, and right again at First Street. Advantage: no stairs. Disadvantage: 5 minute walk outside; (2) going through the Hyatt gym – go down the escalator, through the gym, out the backdoor (we will post signs), directly across the street. Advantage: shorter walk. Disadvantage: 10 stair steps, no ramp, out the back door.

[As you go north on North Capitol check out the view in your side and rear-view mirrors.]

Take North Capitol 2 miles to the Michigan Avenue light and turn right. Go 3-4 blocks on Michigan Avenue (go slow on Michigan Ave - 25 mph - deadly camera-enforced speed trap) to Harewood Avenue, just before the Basilica, and turn left on Harewood.

On Harewood, take the first right you can immediately after the Basilica, at the Ward Building entrance to the CUA campus.

As you enter the campus, with Ward Hall on your left, go straight up the small hill to the stop sign. McMahon Hall is the dark gray stone building in front of you. Go through the intersection about 20 feet and veer to the left briefly, then turn right. (Do not take the sharp left at the stop sign.)

You will be in the large campus parking lot to the left of McMahon Hall. You may park in that lot in any available space except for ones reserved for specific vehicles.

The Pryzbyla Center is the modern glass building set back a ways, and to the left of McMahon.

Pairings will be in the Great Room on the 2nd floor of the Pryz.
Parking – Parking is free on the CUA campus Saturday and Sunday. The buildings we are using for announcements and competition buildings surround the main parking lot. When you arrive on Saturday morning leave your evidence in your vehicles until you learn where you will be debating. If you are debating in Shahan Hall you will probably want to drive your evidence the short distance to that building. Please do not park in spaces reserved for specific individuals or vehicles.

Food – we will be providing a warm breakfast buffet, and a lunch buffet both Saturday and Sunday in the Great Room at the Pryzbyla Center.

Meal Tickets – Tickets for the 5 meals provided on the CUA campus (two breakfasts, two lunches and the banquet) will be distributed one meal at a time, by school, from a table outside the Great Room. You must have a meal ticket to be admitted to any of these meals.

Computer Centers and Printing – You have full access to the University computing centers. There are computer centers at McMahon 007, McMahon 009, and Shahan 302. Printing is free. Please treat the computing facilities with care, and keep them clean.

Log On: guest06 Password: debate

Wireless Working in the Pryzbyla Center – The Pryzbyla Center, where the announcements will be made, is wireless. You will need your own printing technology there.

Photocopying – You may use the photocopy center in the Library, at .10 per copy. Sat: 9:00 am - 10:00 pm; Sun: 11:00 am - 11:30 pm.

Overnight Evidence Storage – You may leave your evidence in competition rooms overnight on Saturday. Do not leave your evidence on campus overnight on Sunday. All debates on Monday will take place in the Hyatt.

Tournament Announcements – will take place in the Great Room on the second floor of the Pryzbyla Center.

Ballot Tables – Ballots will be distributed directly to the competition rooms. Ballots should be returned to the ballot table in your building. Look for ballot runners with CUA red shirts.

Receptions – The CUA Graduate Admissions Office will host a reception in the Great Room on Saturday at 3:00 p.m. The CUA Law School will host a reception in the Law School Foyer at 3:00 p.m. on Sunday. The Law School building is immediately behind the Pryzbyla Center. The CUA President’s Reception will be in the Great Room Gallery at 8:00 p.m. on Sunday.

Team Photographs – Al Louden is the official 2004 NDT photographer. He will be taking pictures on Thursday at the Hyatt, from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. in Congressional D, and immediately after the opening assembly in the Regency Ballroom. We encourage you to take advantage of these time slots if you want to avoid this hassle during the tournament. For those who do not, we will assign you to a specific round break during the tournament.

Competition Room Locations – All debates will take place in one of four buildings: Caldwell Hall, McMahon Hall, the Pryzbyla Center, and Shahan Hall. See the campus map on the previous page. There will be CUA staff outside of the Pryzbyla Center as you leave the announcements to direct you to the appropriate building.

CUA Bookstore – the CUA Bookstore, located near the front door of the Pryzbyla Center, will maintain extended hours for the NDT. They will be open from 10 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. both Saturday and Sunday. They are offering a 20% discount on any clothing to all NDT participants.
10 recommendations for Washington's restaurants

1. The most comprehensive web site, listing the best restaurants, bargains, ethnic categories etc. is offered by The Washingtonian Magazine:
   http://washingtonian.com/dining/

3. Late night dives but really good food: The Diner in Adams Morgan; Au Pied du Cuchon in Georgetown (peasant French); Lindy’s in Foggy Bottom (burgers), and El Tamarindo in Adams Morgan (El Salvadoran).

5. Interesting neighborhood: Cleveland Park; easy Metro, Red Line Cleveland Park. Try the highly-recommended Yanfu (pan-Asian), the less expensive Spices (pan-Asian), Nam-Viet (Vietnamese) Yenching Palace (Chinese) or Bardeo (contemporary American, wine list).

7. Ethnic – Washington hosts a large number of quality ethnic restaurants. Unfortunately some of the best are out in Rockville (Chinese – Joe’s Noodle House) and Silver Spring (Cuban – CuBano’s; El Salvadoran – Samantha’s).

   Indian – Iyoti or White Tiger; Tapas – Jaloo (near Hyatt); Mediterranean – The Lebanese Taverna; Asian – Ten Penh; Ethiopian – Meskerem or Dukem; Thai – Thaiphoon, Thai Tanic, Sala Thai or Bangkok Bistro; Greek – Mykonos Grill; and Latin American – Ceiba.

8. Budget Blower Top Five: Michel Richard Citronelle (very modern French); Kinkead’s (Seafood); Vidalia (Southern); Gerard’s Place (French); Marcel’s (Alsatian).

9. What About Italian? Galileo (expensive); Al Tiramisu (moderate); and Famous Luigi’s (inexpensive).

10. Consider These: Cashion’s Eat Place (Adams Morgan, contemporary American); and Finemo (Penn Quarter, stylish, new, rustic Italian, easy Metro), The Harmony Café (Georgetown, vegetarian); Amma (Georgetown, vegetarian Indian).

If you have specific questions or are looking for something not on this list, don’t hesitate to ask us (Paul Kerr or Steve Mancuso). We’ll be carrying a couple of DC restaurant books with phone numbers, hours, prices, addresses, reviews and directions.

A new cooperative scouting system has been established for the 2004 NDT. Its three goals are:

1. To provide comprehensive scouting;
2. To equalize access to the scouting information; and
3. To continue efforts to minimize disruption caused by scouting.

Adrienne Brovero and Eric Slusher have been named the 2004 Co-Directors of the scouting system. The scouting operation will be located in the staff lounge in the ground-level Pryzbylea Cafeteria.

Comprehensive Scouting

Every debate in each round will be scouted. Official scouts will have unique and rapid access to evidence and citations read in that round. Scouts will be identified by special nametag. Individuals who are not designated as official scouts will be designated as “observers.” Observers are governed by previous restrictive rules concerning observer scouting.

Equalize Access

The scouting information will be made available as soon as possible in three ways. (1) a hard copy will be maintained in the Pryzbylea Center Great Room, (2) schools providing their own disks may download the information from the system computer; and (3) the information will be posted on the web at: ndtcaselist.com. A school need not contribute a scout to the official pool in order to receive the information from it.

Minimize Disruption

The Scouting Co-Directors, along with NDT Chair Cate Palczewski, will be responsible for the training of official scouts. The scouts will be trained to minimize disruption in the debate, and therefore will be granted an exemption from current rules governing scouting. If you find an official scout to be disruptive, please immediately inform Brovero, Slusher or Palczewski.

Season-long achievement: the Copeland Award

Each year the NDT honors the top collegiate team in the nation based on their season-long achievements.

Since 1990, the Copeland Memorial Award has been presented to the collegiate debate team ranked #1 in the first-round at-large bid team selections.

Rex Copeland, from Samford University, was an outstanding student and debater, as well as a cherished friend to many among us. His parents, along with the university, established a distinctive and inspirational award, which has made the name “Copeland” synonymous in our community with the highest level of excellence.

The National Debate Tournament began at the United States Military Academy in 1947. It was organized and conducted by the Academy at West Point for its first twenty years. Initial tournament rules were determined by the West Point Administration in consultation with debate coaches such as A. Craig Baird of the University of Iowa, G.M. Musgrave of Des Moines, Alan Nichols of the University of Southern California, E. R. Nichols of the University of Redlands, and Joseph O'Brien of Penn State University.

At the first tournament in 1947, 29 colleges participated in the "seeding" rounds and four elimination rounds over a three-day period. Some of the features of the tournament were that no school would meet a school within five hundred miles of itself during the seeding rounds and that no coach would judge a school from his or her own district.

In 1967, the National Debate Tournament entered a new era as the American Forensic Association, the national professional organization of American forensic educators, assumed responsibility for the tournament. The NDT was moved from West Point and has been hosted by a different school every year since, although four schools have hosted it twice (West Georgia College, Miami University of Ohio, and the University of Utah, Southwest Missouri State).

Procedures for the tournament are determined by the NDT Committee, which is composed of one member elected from each of the 9 districts and 4 members appointed by the AFA President. The NDT Board of Trustees is also appointed by the AFA President. It has the responsibility of overseeing all NDT financial matters. As debate has developed in recent years other refinements have been added to the tournament: Cross-examination, ten minutes of preparation time, elaborate procedures for mutual judge ratings, judge qualification requirements, and computer assisted research stations for participating schools. The tournament has also expanded in size from 29 teams to 78 teams.

In the early days, district-nominating committees chose teams. This method was replaced by qualifying tournaments in most districts. For the first 20 years of NDT competition the tournament host and previous year's winner received automatic invitations. Post-district at-large bids were initiated in 1968, and pre-district bids in 1971. Since 1970, it has been possible for any school to qualify as many as two teams for the tournament. Beginning in 1992, the tournament expanded from 72 teams to 78 teams allowing up to six schools to potentially qualify a third team.

The National Debate Tournament is grateful to its corporate sponsor, the Ford Motor Company Fund. The NDT is also indebted to Mr. Sigurd S. Larmon (1891-1987) for donating the rotating Larmon Trophy, emblematic of the national debate championship; to Mr. And Mrs. George Walker for donating the rotating second-place Walker Memorial Trophy in memory of their son; to Mr. Robert Feldhake, top speaker at the 1976 NDT and now an attorney in Los Angeles, for donating the Wayne Brockriede Top Speaker Award; to District Nine for donating the rotating top Speaker Trophy; the Copeland Family for donating the Rex Copelan First Team at-Large Trophy, and to Ovid R. Davis and the State University of West Georgia for donating the Championship Coach Award.
