This year, for the first time, Wake Forest instituted a high school coaching program for its debaters. Wake Forest debaters coached a total of eight local schools, and donated many hours of their time to further the quality of local high school debate. These debaters, and the schools they coached, include:

--- Scott Balderson, Kennedy High School
--- Kathy Clay, Hill High School
--- Robert Hoover, Paisley High School
--- Bill Johnston, Atkins High School
--- Vicki Leonard, Hanes High School
--- Michael Knish, Carver High School
--- John Walker, Anderson High School
--- Janet Woodruff, Mt. Tabor High School

After a rather extensive season of weekly inter-school debates, a final round-robin tournament was held, and Hanes High School was determined the winner.
Wake Forest University staff members have aided the administration of various national college tournaments this year. These include:

---- University of Central Florida Debate Tournament
       January, 1980

---- The U.C.L.A. Debate Tournament
       January, 1980

---- The National Debate Tournament
       April, 1980

The Wake Forest squad and staff have aided high school forensics by judging at high school tournaments. These include:

---- High Point Central High School, High Point, North Carolina
       November, 1979

---- R.J. Reynolds High School, Winston-Salem, North Carolina
       December, 1979

---- Ledford High School, Thomasville, North Carolina
       March, 1980

---- Carolina District N.F.L. Debates, Myers Park High School,
       Charlotte, North Carolina
       March, 1980

---- Tarheel Forensic League State Tournament, University of North Carolina,
