NATIONAL EARLYBIRD
FORENSICS TOURNAMENT

September 12 – 14, 2008

STUDENT CONGRESS
FINAL RESULTS PACKET

PRELIMINARY COMPETITION FORMAT

This year's Wake Forest Congress featured four (4) chambers. Chamber assignments were made randomly, with the exception that schools and states were separated and distributed among the chambers as evenly as possible.

There were two sessions of debate in the Preliminary Competition. Each session consisted of 5 hours of floor debate evenly divided into 2 segments. There was one elected Presiding Officer per segment, thus allowing a total of four legislators from each chamber the honor of presiding. One complete session was a legislative day, and priority for speaking was reset at the end of each legislative day. Thus, all legislators had zero speeches at the start of each session.

One Scorer and one Parliamentarian evaluated each chamber. The Parliamentarian stayed in a chamber for the duration of the preliminary sessions, while the Scorers rotated after each segment. The Scorer evaluated every speech that was given in a segment, rating it on a scale of 1 to 6 (1 is low; 6 is high). The Parliamentarian did not write formal ballots for each speech but wrote an evaluation for each Presiding Officer, awarding him/her up to 12 NFL points for service in one segment.

At the end of each segment, the Scorer ranked the top 8 legislators. The Parliamentarian did the same thing at the end of the session. The criterion for ranking is Best Legislator, and the Presiding Officer was eligible for selection. The tab room converted the rankings of the officials to the Credit System as follows:

1 st place = 8 credits	4 th place = 5 credits	7 th place = 2 credits
2 nd place = 7 credits	5 th place = 4 credits	8 th place = 1 credit
3 rd place = 6 credits	6 th place = 3 credits

Those legislators who were not ranked by a given official received zero credits from that official.

At the end of each session, the legislator from each chamber with the highest number of credits for that session advanced to the Super Congress. Additionally, the two legislators from each chamber with the highest combined credits from both sessions also advanced to the Super Congress. Any ties for advancement were broken on the basis of judges' preference. Therefore, a total of sixteen legislators (4 per chamber) advanced to the Super Congress on Sunday morning.

SUPER SESSION FORMAT

A total of sixteen (16) legislators qualified to compete in the Super Session using the advancement procedure outlined earlier in this packet. The Super Congress consisted of a single session of floor debate totaling 2 ½ hours. The session divided into two segments of 1 ¼ hours each. This format allowed for two Presiding Officers. Each Presiding Officer was be scored on a scale of 1 – 6 and service as Presiding Officer counted as one speech for purposes of speaker recognition.

A panel of three judges from the Congress, Speech, and Debate pools was selected to adjudicate the Super Session. Each of the two judges AND the parliamentarian served as scorers who evaluated all speeches and awards scores of 1 – 6 (1 is low; 6 is high). The points awarded by all of the Scorers for a given speech were averaged together (decimals were rounded up) to determine NFL points for that speech. All Scorers also evaluated the Presiding Officers.

At the end of the session, each Scorer secretly and independently ranked the top 8 legislators. The criterion for ranking was Best Legislator, with the Presiding Officers eligible for selection. The tab room converted the rankings of the officials to the Credit System as follows:

1 st place = 8 credits	5 th place = 4 credits
2 nd place = 7 credits	6 th place = 3 credits
3 rd place = 6 credits	7 th place = 2 credits
4 th place = 5 credits	8 th place = 1 credit

Those legislators who were not ranked by a given official received zero credits from that official.

The six legislators with the highest number of credits in the Super Session (credits earned in the Preliminary Competition do not count) were placed into nomination for Best Legislator. Ties were broken on judges' preference. Each Super Congress legislator then ranked the six nominees on a preferential ballot. Each ballot cast by a legislator was worth one vote. The original nomination ballot of each judge was worth 3 votes. The legislator who won the preferential ballot election conducted by the tab room staff was be declared
